

BOWHEY, CLARENCE HENRY

EARLY LIFE

Jun 29, 1893

Born in Snowdon Township, Ontario to John Henry and Emily Jane (Stafford) Bowhey.

1901 Census

Age 7

Lived in Verulam, Ontario with John Bowhey (head of house – father, age 41), Emily Bowhey (mother, age 32), Annie Bowhey (sister, age 11), James Bowhey (brother, age 8).

Apr 7, 1916

Attestation Paper

MILITARY SERVICE
Attested to the 127th York Rangers, Over-seas Battalion, Canadian Expeditionary Force

- Number: 779050
- Present address: King, Ontario
- Next of kin given: John Henry Bowhey (Father) in Lindsay, Ontario
- Trade or calling: Railway Man
- Married: No
- Previous military experience: Yes – Belongs to the 12th Regiment York Rangers
- Religion: Methodist
- Physical attributes:
 - Age: 21 years
 - Height: 5'7"
 - Complexion: Fair
 - Eyes: Blue
 - Hair: Brown

Mar 29, 1919

Age 55

Sapper Clarence Henry Bowhey was discharged by reason of demobilization. His proposed place of residence after discharge was Lindsay, Ontario.

AFTER THE WAR

1921 Census

Age 24

Lived at 81 Mary Street, Barrie, Ontario with Elizabeth McAuley (head of house, age 51) and her daughter Maydee McAuley (music teacher, age 20).

Nov 1, 1922

Age 29

Married Pearle Alexandra Rowe (age 20), daughter of Sylvester Charles and Mary Ann (Fawcett) Rowe of Hancock, Michigan. At the time of the wedding, Clarence Bowhey worked as a cashier.

1945 Voter List

Age 47

Clarence (age 47) and Pearle Bowhey lived in Simcoe, Ontario. Clarence Bowhey worked as a clerk.

Jan 29, 1949

Age 55

Clarence Henry Bowhey died in Barrie, Ontario.