

DAVIS, DANIEL IRWIN

EARLY LIFE

Aug 6, 1889

Born in Schomberg to Walter James and Elizabeth (Irwin) Clarke. He was the younger brother of Henry Clarke Davis.

1901 Census

Age 11

Lived in King, Ontario with Walter Davis (head of house – father, age 44), Elizabeth Davis (mother, age 39), Thomas Davis (brother, age 18), Ada Davis (sister, age 16) and Henry Davis (brother, age 14).

MILITARY SERVICE

Dec 9, 1916

Attested to C.A.M.C. (Canadian Army Medical Corp), Canadian Over-seas Expeditionary Force

Attestation
Paper

- Number: Lieutenant
- Present address: Port Coquitlam, British Columbia
- Next of kin given: Mrs. Elizabeth Davis (Mother) in Port Coquitlam, British Columbia
- Trade or Calling: Physician
- Married: No
- Previous military experience: Yes – COTC (Canadian Officer Training Corps) for 2 years
- Religion: Methodist
- Physical attributes:
 - Age: 27 years
 - Height: 5'9"

Dec 17, 1916

Age 27

Diagnosed with aortic systolic murmur.

May 11, 1918

Age 28

Diagnosed with nephritis in wrists and ankles, which he contracted dressing an infected wound.

Aug 27, 1920

Age 29

Lieutenant Daniel Davis was discharged because of general demobilization.