

As a remarkable coincidence, more than 58 years after D-Day, it was learned that King City resident Chuck Ormsby (right), an Able Bodied Seaman with the Royal Canadian Navy, actually drove the barge that contained Bill Perry (left) and his comrades ashore. The pair are pictured at Saturday's fund-raiser in Schomberg.